

St. Peter's Academy East Bridgford – Homework

Task/ Expectation:

Many children in our class have been involved with Rock Challenge this term and we were able to watch their dance routine today in school. It was fantastic and we wish all of the children every success as they compete on Monday in the Rock Challenge competition.

As we mentioned last week, we have given until after Easter for the children to complete their Ancient Egyptian homework. We would like the children to present a piece of Egyptian information in a creative, unusual way and will be showing and talking about our efforts in a 'museum day' later in the term, where children from other classes will have the opportunity to look at our work, as we take on the role of museum curators.

We are looking forward to seeing many of you at our parents' evening next Wednesday or Thursday. If you are unable to make either date, please talk to us about finding a mutually convenient time.

Times tables will take place as usual next Wednesday – thank you for your continued support with this. Also, please ensure that your child has the correct P.E. kit for table tennis in the hall every Monday afternoon.

Finally, Sam Shouler has lost a new blue school polo shirt with his name inside it. Please can you check at home in case your child has taken it home by mistake.

Thank you.

To be returned by Friday 21st April
