

English Homework ~ Punctuating Speech

Look at the scene below.

What do you think is happening?

What might the children be saying to each other?

Write a short description about each of the scenes below. You must include direct speech in each description and include the correct punctuation. The first one has been done for you.

Don't forget:

Bronze: I can use inverted commas around the parts of speech.

Silver: I can use an appropriate reporting clause.

Gold: I can use a comma after the reporting clause if it comes before the speech.

During first lesson, Rory and Isobel worked together on their history research project.

"We're never going to get this finished in the next ten minutes," muttered Rory quietly so that Miss Roper wouldn't hear.

Remember to present your work in a Take Care way. Think carefully about your cursive handwriting and only join the letters which you have been taught to join correctly.
