Cornwall and its surroundings.

---

- The county is in the south west of the British isles.
- Only Devon surrounds it.
- The terrain of Cornwall is coastal which is next to the Celtic sea.
- Cornwall has definitely got a lot of rural areas.
- Cornwall has a coastline of 400 miles (WOW).
- The towns are Polperro, Fowey, Boscastle, and St Ives, (my favourite because we go there every May) there are also lots and lots more.
- Cornwall has one city called Truro.

Top 10 Landmarks

---

These are the top ten best landmarks in Cornwall.

- Zennor head,
- Carn Euny,
- Boscawen-un,
- Chysauster village,
- tintagel castle,
- Lanyon quoit,
- Merry Maidens,
- Port harbour
- St Ives bay.

How to get there and famous features

---

- The easiest way to get there is by car (which takes ages by the way) but for some unusual people they go by PLANE to Newquay Airport, I think that is VERY strange.
- Cornwall is famous for their pasties (so delicious.)
- Historic places - St Michaels Mount, is a big castle on a HUGE hill. Eden Project is a large dome with loads of plants like a rainforest actually. Tate St Ives is an art gallery.
- In Cornwall there used to be gold miners so I think that counts.

Why to visit Cornwall

---

I would say going on holiday mostly because of the golden sands, wonderful waves to surf or body-board, perfect pasties, and the best one the magnificent MooMaids ice cream. Its really fun and you can do all sorts of things.

Zenquin zoo and definitely Eden project.

Helen Grover The Olympic rower was born in Truro in 1986 and grew up in Penzance, where she still lives now.

There slogan is 'Onen hagal' Cornish for 'one and all'.

A Photomontage!

This is a picture of my two best friend the boy I am hugging is Ben and the girl holding Edie is Katherine I have known her since she was three days old!

And this is our favourite ice cream shop called MooMaids
