Good afternoon,

Thank you for supporting our belated World Book Day. The class looked fabulous and it was amazing to see everyone dressed up. We spent the first part of the morning guessing who we had come dressed as, and who our favourite characters were and why.

Curriculum:

We have finished our work on rivers (last piece for homework) and on Thursday we started to learn all about mountains. Our text King of the Cloud Forest by Michael Morpurgo takes Ashley on an adventure through the Himalayas. Today we found out some interesting facts about Everest, ask your child/children to share these with you.

In English we have been enjoyed learning about powerful adjectives and story settings though art. We have listened to parts of a story and drawn how we imagine the setting to look.

In Maths we now understand how to work out the area of a rectilinear shape by counting the squares. We also know we can multiply the length by the width.

PE will be indoors on MONDAY and outdoors on WEDNESDAY. Please send appropriate kit, shorts/leggings and a tee-shirt for indoor and separate warm clothes for outdoors (hat and gloves on very cold days).

HOMEWORK:

This week, I would like the children to go on Oddizzi and have a go at the River quiz. At the moment Andrew is at the top of the leader board - Well done Andrew!

Oddizzi. Our class has a new username and password; these are USERNAME: c42022 PASSWORD: oddizzi

I would also like the children to complete the acrostic poem from the 40 days of Lent sheet. They can choose a river of their choice. The idea is to write the word down the page and each line of the poem starts with the letter. For example

*The river meanders as the reeds sway,
Rowers and ducks follow the flow, silently,
Erosion, eating the banks for supper,
Nests with signets greeting their mums,
The bridge standing peacefully like a statue, watching.*

Times tables using purple mash and spellings once a week. Read three times a week (to be recorded in work diary)

Other work to be completed in their homework book.

Thank you.

Mrs. Archer Dytch
