Spring 2 Newsletter #5

It was a pleasure to meet so many of you at parent's evening this week. Thank you for all your support. We have had another busy week as we approach the Easter holidays.

What have we been up to this week?

- We have written our own fear stories and they are very scary!
- Decimals including hundredths and thousandths and area of rectilinear shapes
- Ernest Shackleton in History
- Resurrection and life after death in RE
- We planned a new piece of environmental art
- Learnt some sign language for National Sign Language week
- Reviewed our Frozen Kingdom learning

Next week

- PE will be on Thursday
- The Easter competition is on Thursday
- Last day of term is on Thursday!

Homework

- Spellings – please remember to practice these before next Thursday
- Maths – Fractions: Hundredths
Extra challenge – Comparing fractions and decimals 2do on Purple Mash
- English – Mark my work! sheet
- Take care homework - Create your own Frozen Kingdom word search puzzle using all the new words you have learned during the topic. We can then use these with our friends! OR Create a poster or brochure for a new travel company which arranges visits to the Arctic or Antarctic. Use powerful images and text to tempt customers who want an extra-special trip! (Due in on Monday 25th March)
