Spring 1 Newsletter #4

What a busy week! We are tightening up our classroom routines and cramming lots of learning in.

What have we been up to this week?

- Writing our own wishing story
- Subtracting fractions including mixed numbers
- Designing our own stencils in Art
- Going on an imaginary Arctic expedition in Geography
- Investigating the best shapes for bridges in DT
- Using formulae in spreadsheets
- Learning more clothes in Spanish
- Singing in a round in Music
- A Y5/6 workshop on Protected characteristics
- A visit from Nottinghamshire police

Reminders

- PE is on Thursday and Friday.
- Children should be reading regularly at home and writing this in their diaries (which they should bring to school everyday)
- Please can we limit the amount of items children are bringing to school. At the moment, they are allowed to have a personal pencil case on their desk but there is no room for anything that will not fit in their pencil cases. They have already been spoken to about this.

Homework

- Spellings this week the children will bring home groups spellings which can also be found on the class page of the website
- Maths Adding mixed numbers
- English Write their own cinquain on a topic of choice
