Creative Arts Day

The children thoroughly enjoyed our Creative Arts Day on Monday. We created our own pieces of artwork inspired by Nick Rowland. Nick Rowland is a British artist who creates abstract paintings of things found in nature. We had a look at his website and viewed his artwork, including a picture of a volcano. The children then created their own six layer painting in the style of Nick Rowland. I was thrilled with the children's artwork, they definitely surpassed my expectations. More photos will be uploaded to our class page.
