Homework for this week:

Homework timetable is available in the front of the children's SPAG books and on the class page.

If children need time to complete this in school, they should let me know and I can organise this for them. I advise that children don't get too far ahead, to keep up the 'little and often' approach. Unless they have an incredibly busy week coming up, where they may want to get ahead of themselves slightly.

Have a lovely weekend,
Miss Walton, Mrs Parry and Mrs Smith 😊
