

St. Peter's Academy – Weekly newsletter (UKS2)

UKS2 Staff:

Mrs. Marston – Year 5 teacher    Mrs Smith – Teaching Partner (HLTA)
Miss. Walton – Year 6 Teacher

Date: Friday 22nd September 2023

Newsletter #3 – Messages:

What have we been up to this week?

- Exploring what makes a good suspense story.
- Looking at how our other bodily systems assist the circulatory system.
- Researched an African country of our choice and presented our findings.
- Finished our place value topic in maths!
- Rehearsed our harvest festival song.
- Learnt the days of the week in Spanish.
- Much more...ask the children!

UKS2 homework for this week

In preparation for our Flintham Show trip on Thursday, we would like the children to complete an entry to submit. There is no entry fee, but we would like the children to make sure that their name and age is marked on their submission somewhere. Thank you also to parent volunteers – your help is much appreciated!

I42 – 4 decorated cupcakes incorporating a crown

I44 – Handwriting poem of the following:

*Joy to the nation as we celebrate
The coronation of our new King
A long time we've had to wait*

*Trumpets herald His Majesty Charles III
His people will share this joyous time
With street parties around the world*

*2023 we celebrate our Flintham Show
In honour of our Sovereign King
A man of the people, a man we've come to know*

I45 – A photograph 'Animal Crackers' unmounted, size 25cm x 20cm max, by a child 9-14

I46 – A sunflower head grown by a child up to 14 years

I47 – A sunflower seed head grown by a child up to 14 years

I52 – A drawing or a painting by a child – not a collage!

Children will be able to view their entries at the show. We would like the entries in by Wednesday 27th September AM so that they can be taken to the show.
