

Autumn term 2 spelling overview – Year 6

Words set 10th November:

Orangutans	Gorillas
Focus – words ending in -able	Focus – words with 'silent' letters
applicable tolerable operable considerable dependable comfortable reasonable perishable breakable fashionable	doubt lamb debt thumb solemn autumn column knight knuckle knot

Words set 17th November:

Orangutans	Gorillas
Focus – words ending in -ably	Focus – words with 'silent' letters
adorably valuably believably considerably tolerably changeably noticeably dependably comfortably reasonably	wrestle wrapper island aisle debris mortgage christmas yacht guarantee guilty

Words set 24th November:

Orangutans	Gorillas
Focus – word families based on common words, showing how words are related in form and meaning	Focus – words ending in 'ment'
temperature temper temperament tempered variety vary variation varied variable variance	equipment environment government parliament enjoyment document management movement replacement statement

Words set 1st December:

Orangutans	Gorillas
Focus – word families based on common words, showing how words are related in form and meaning	Focus – adverbs of possibility and frequency
suggest digest congestion gesture gestation lightning daylight enlighten twilight limelight	certainly definitely possibly perhaps probably frequently often occasionally rarely always

Words set 8th December:

Orangutans	Gorillas
Focus – creating diminutives using prefixes micro- or mini-	Focus – statutory spelling challenge words
minibus miniskirt miniscule minibeast minicab minimum microscope microchip microphone microwave	vegetable vehicle bruise soldier stomach recommend leisure privilege occur neighbour