Younger children can enter an older age group if they wish. Children's entries should not be marked with their name or age

Admissions of Homecraft/Horticulture exhibits is from 8.00am to 9.45am in the main marquee

If you are unable to take your child's entries on Saturday morning these can be brought to St. Peter's School Office on Friday 23rd June and they will then be taken across on Saturday morning for display.
However, it would be appreciated if you could take larger/fragile entries direct to the Show Marquee on Saturday morning.

(If you wish to keep your child's entries you will need to collect them from the Show Marquee between 4.30-5pm)

Please complete the form attached and keep with any entries you are submitting.

Scarecrows must be displayed at the address given on the entry form for the week running up to Show Day, and then brought to the Show for final judging.
